"Reflections of the Class of 75"

Senior Sue Reid gives class to the girls' locker room.

Student artists

Bring life to blank walls

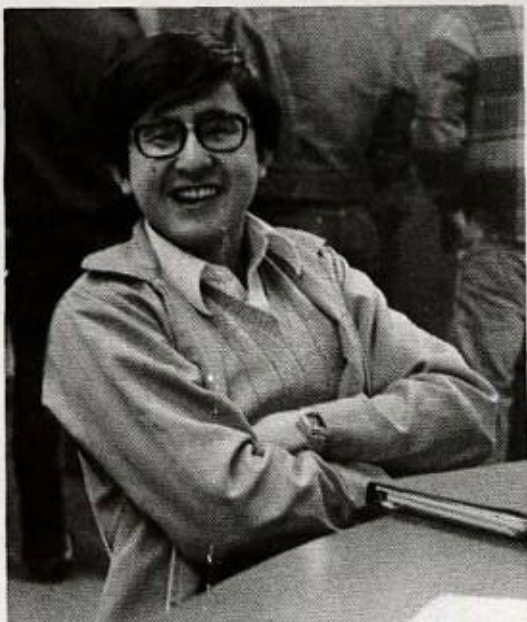

As part of their independent art projects, eight students set out to bring some color to the blank walls of M.H.S. Attacking everything from the girls' locker room to the artroom itself, these students spent hours planning, sketching and painting. The final results were certainly worth it. Zebras now cavort across the lobby, a mosaic mirror reflects the library's loafers and bright designs clothe the locker room doors.

Arne Andersen, Marie Moberg, Deb Cottam, Melody Millbach painted locker room doors.

Hiroya Visits from Chiba Japan

Hiroya Ichikawa is from Chiba, which is in the suburbs of Tokyo. He is living with the Calvert family on their farm in Monroe. He is an only child and was 17 on December 17.

In Japan Hiroya attended a private school where all the subjects are basic and the only electives are art and P.E. He thinks our school system is better because in Japan the teachers change classes instead of the students and the students are more formal with the teachers. He also says Japanese people are more silent and don't get excited like we do at pep assemblies.

He is scheduled to return to Japan by August, but he hopes to stay and attend college in America. He wants to study law to be a judge or a lawyer; he also would enjoy working with the handicapped.

A big difference between Japan and the U.S. is that here people follow many different religions where in Japan many people are Buddhist. Also, in Japan they have no certain day to practice religion as we do on Sundays.

Hiroya says he doesn't really miss anything from Japan. He hasn't lived in Japan all his life. He lived in the Philippines for 4 or 5 years and he has visited Washington before when he was a sophomore.

Issa Stays with DeJongs

Eighteen year old Ana Isabel Gonzalez is staying with the DeJong family here in Monroe. She was born on the eighth of July in Chinameca, El Salvador, Central America.

Issa says she always wanted to come here and on her arrival she wasn't disappointed. She plans to stay in the U.S. until November 18, 1975, but will be changing schools some time in late winter or early spring. She graduated from a college of business last October and will be working as an executive secretary in El Salvador when she returns.

Some of Issa's hobbies are roller skating, riding bikes and horses, and she loves animals and music of all kinds. She practices yoga and also likes to read.

She likes the U.S. and Monroe, she thinks people here are more reserved, but friendly. She feels people of Central America are more romantic. They like to make others feel welcome and happy.

She has had six years of English and likes the language very much; this makes it easier for her to get along in the U.S., although she does miss her own native food.

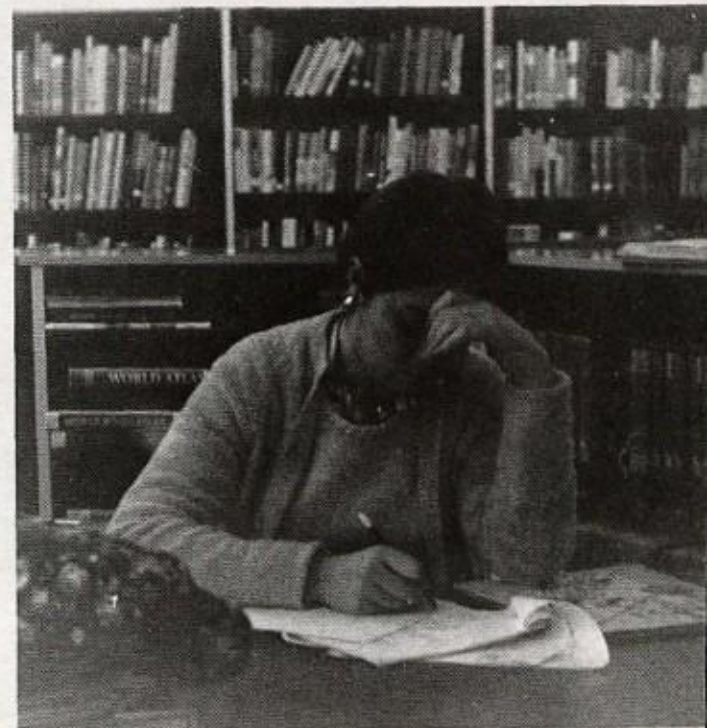

Wickizers Host Martha from Guadalajara

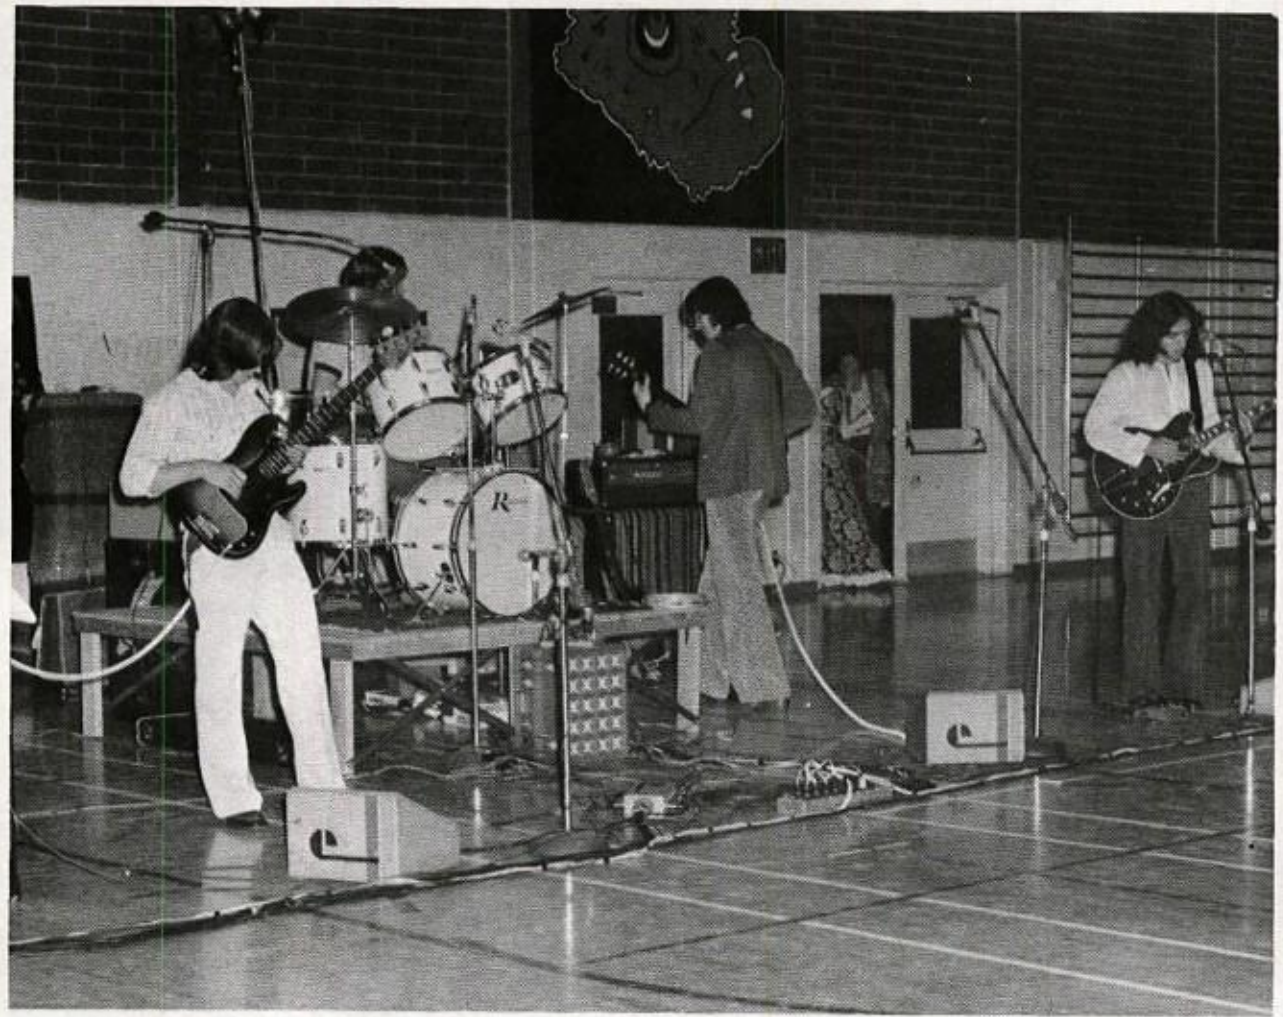

Martha Ramirez is an exchange student from Guadalajara, Mexico staying with the Wickizer family. She comes from a big family of seven sisters and four brothers, so it's a real change to be living with a small family.

Her hobbies are bowling and motorcycle riding, and she also enjoys going to the movies.

She comes from a private school where classes consist of about forty students, and the students are more formal with the teachers. She says school is better here than in Mexico. She likes being less formal with the teachers.

She thinks people in Monroe seem friendly towards her but less friendly towards each other. She likes Seattle and other big cities and plans to stop in Los Angeles for a week or so on her way home to visit relatives.

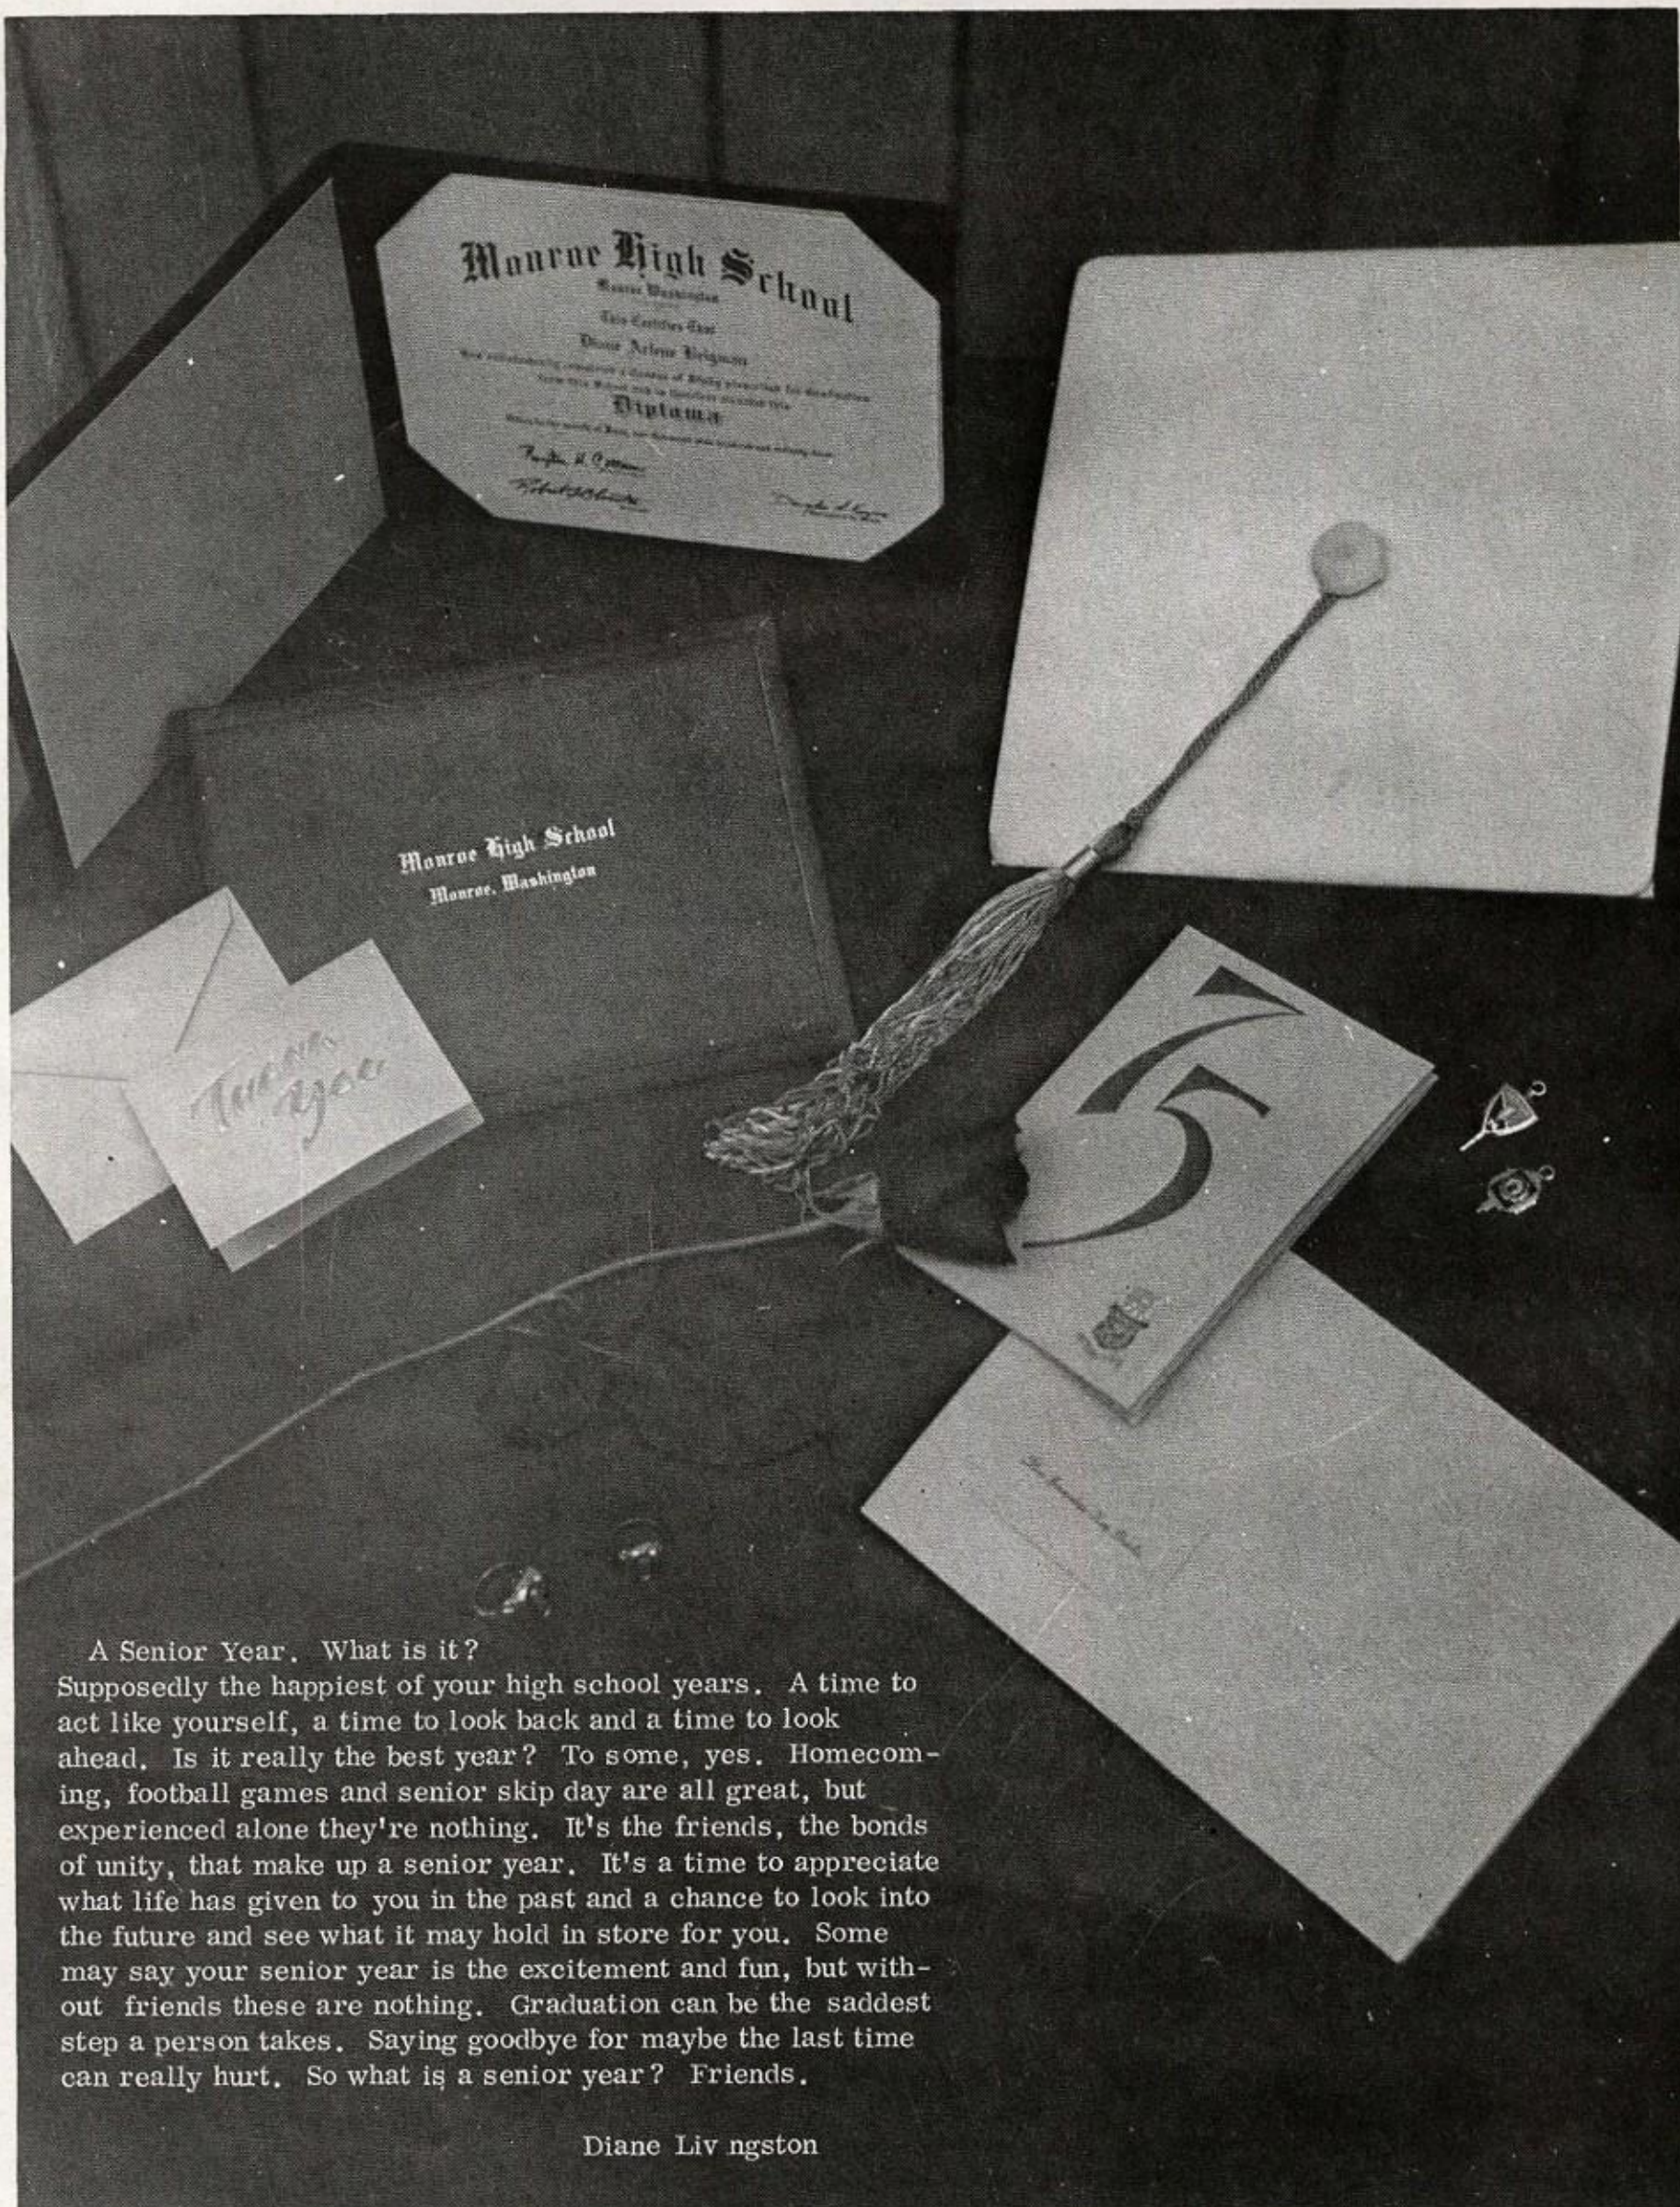

Euphony returns for their second encounter at Monroe High during the Pep Club Tolo. Lance Williams, a member of the band, is a graduate of Monroe High School.

Walk Into My Christmas World

"This year's annual Pep Club Christmas Tolo turned out to be a success," says advisor Jim Moore. "Walk Into My Christmas World" was the theme chosen by chairman Sue Burris and her committee.

An estimated 160-200 people attended, bringing in about $750.

A Senior Year. What is it? Supposedly the happiest of your high school years. A time to act like yourself, a time to look back and a time to look ahead. Is it really the best year? To some, yes. Homecoming, football games and senior skip day are all great, but experienced alone they're nothing. It's the friends, the bonds of unity, that make up a senior year. It's a time to appreciate what life has given to you in the past and a chance to look into the future and see what it may hold in store for you. Some may say your senior year is the excitement and fun, but without friends these are nothing. Graduation can be the saddest step a person takes. Saying goodbye for maybe the last time can really hurt. So what is a senior year? Friends.

Shedding light on the problem

A.S.B. Retreat

Solving the problem through shared ideas

Getting to know each other

Two minds are better than one

Do you have the blahs? Not school spirit? You're not alone. On Saturday, October 5, in Thunderbird Park the A.S.B. members discussed student apathy and brainstormed on ideas to deal with it.

They spent the day getting to know themselves and each other better and worked on their goal of improving student attitude by planning "theme" weeks, such as Fifties week and Happiness week and the possibility of a student lounge.

M-Club Lends a Hand

M-Club is the organization that's always around to help out at school activities such as wrestling matches and the basketball jamboree.

The members must have a varsity letter to apply for membership then be voted in by other members. They raised money through concessions at the games.

Pep Club's the spirit

Officers left to right back row: sec./treas. Ann Biderbost, Freshman rep. Kim Meckle, Sophomore rep. Lorena Blomgren, Senior rep. Cheryl Marty, Vice-pres. Vicki Beetchenow, President Sue Burris, not pictured Junior rep. Terri Trombley.

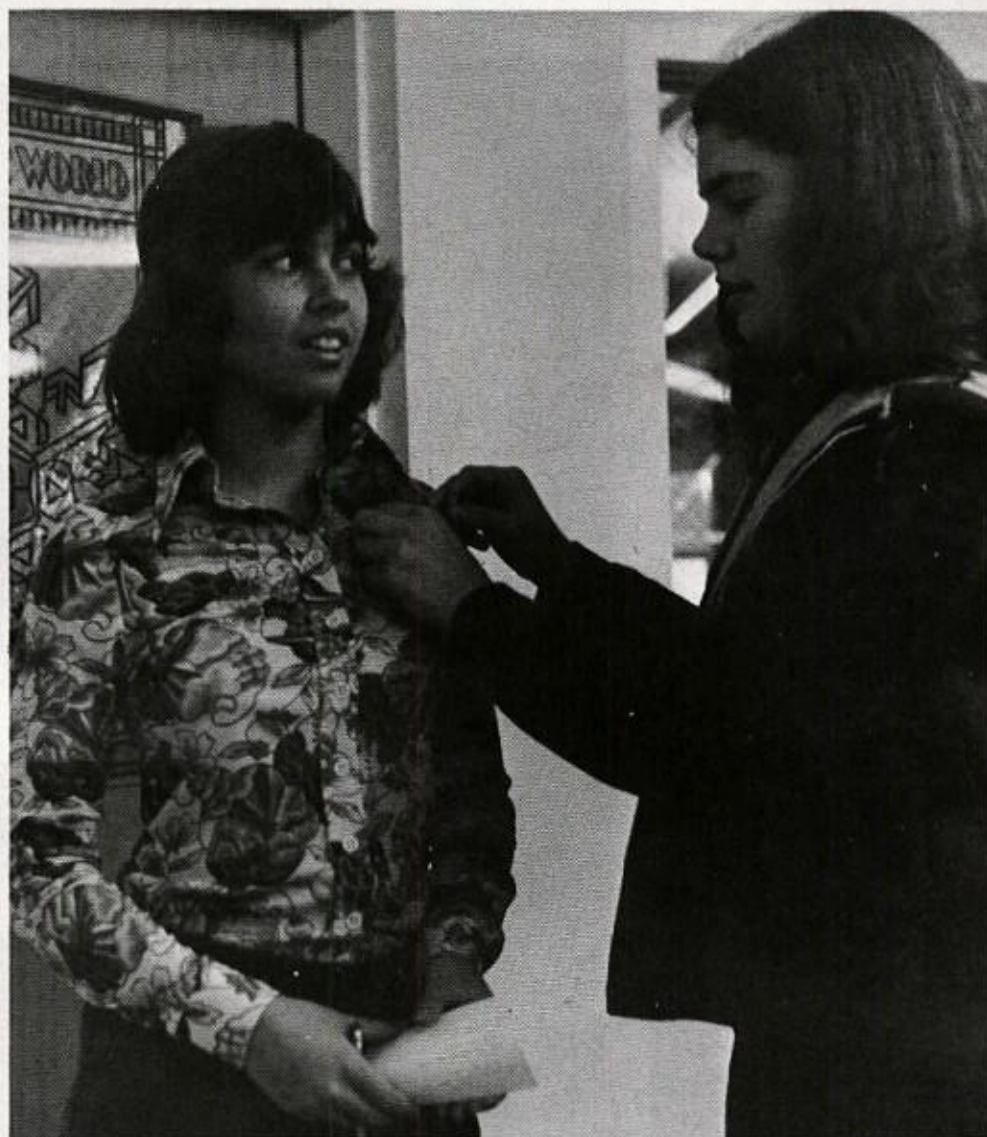

The screaming rooting bunch seen at all the games are members of Pep Club. This group tries to boost the spirit of those taking part in athletics and the student body are spending a lot of time after school painting signs, decorating lockers and baking cakes.

Pep club raises money through dances, the spirit link sale, carmeled apples and other fund raising projects.

Emily Harris makes her point.

The annual, a book for all seasons

Editor: Bonnie Stewart

Co-editor: Jan Lindsey

Time, imagination and patience are what it takes to put out an annual the students will remember. That is what the annual class tried to accomplish this year. They attended conferences and workshops learning new and better ways to add interest to your annual.

Money was raised through selling advertisements, collecting and selling newspapers and other fund raising projects.

Easy writers Write on!!

Like the ants in a colony, Easy Writers is a group of writers who work together to produce the Ant Hill. The club encourages people to write and express their feelings on paper. Suggestions are made to improve their style. At the end of the year the faculty and students combine their efforts to produce the Ant Hill.

Hye-Tye reflects Student interests

The Hye-Tye is created by fourteen people who make up the Journalism class. Their goal is to produce a paper every two weeks with news that will fulfill the needs of the student body and find common interests among the students and write about these interests.

FHA's goal: self-awareness

To be aware of yourself, that was FHA's goal for the year. They worked on developing talents, inter-personal relationships, self-improvement and developing community awareness. They attended the Regional Day at Sultan, October 17 and Recognition Day in March.

In February FHA sponsored the Heartlines and Mr. Irresistible Day during their FHA week. Among their money raising projects the FHA made and sold purses.

The concert choir was decked with new choir robes this year thanks to the successful fund raising of the Barbershop Quartet show. Barbershop also helped out the FHA in their Heartlines sale and teamed up with Beautyshop for other fund raisers.

The choir planned to attend an overnight trip to Colfax and a two or three day spring trip.

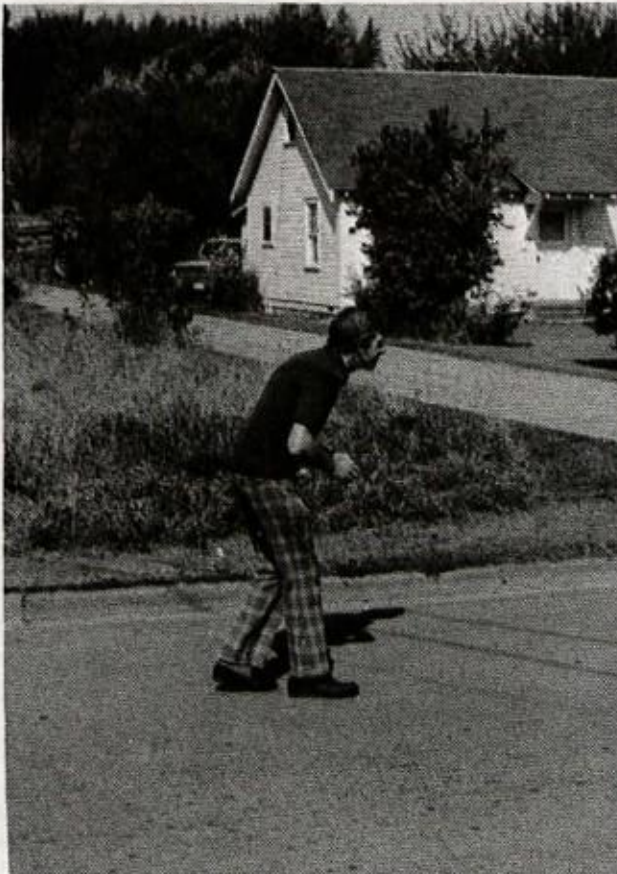

The band: a little bit of rhythm

The rainy fall didn't stop the band from getting out and practicing for their first parade in Leavenworth where they took the first place trophy.

The band added spirit to the football and basketball games. A little bit of rhythm mixed with the cheers of the crowd boosted the moral.

The band ended their year with the annual trip to Victoria. Money was raised for this through concessions, sucker sales and car washes.

Debate: a Battle of The minds

A club providing students with a chance to learn to organize and present their ideas thoughtfully and effectively is debate. Debate is worked into school activities and around other athletic and social events giving every student the chance to participate. Every year a nationwide topic is chosen for discussion. This year's topic is political reform. The members attended Seattle Pacific College, Pacific Luthern and Seattle University. Money was raised through doughnut sales so the club could attend these tournaments.

Checkmate! Chess team's Victory cry

Checkmate is the cry often heard by Monroe's Chess Team's opponents. The team played against Snohomish, Marysville, Everett, Cascade, Mariner, Lynnwood, Woodway and Mount Lake Terrace. A non-league match was played with Shoreline. The team has taken state for the past three years and has hopes of keeping their record.

The club is advised by Brian Ayers, league director of the WESCO WESCO. First board player was Tony Auvil.

Photography Club

What do you do in a dark room? Develop pictures! The Photography Club helps promote an interest in photography as an art. The club also tries to develop good habits and talents in the chemical process of photography and an understanding of it.

The club's goal is to help students develop into good photographers and to give them a head start in the field of photography.

Asteroid B612

A chance for students to work with their hands, that's what Asteroid B612 is. It allows students to use their imagination and create pottery and leather crafts to sell. All profits are re-invested in the program.

The name of the organization was taken from the book THE LITTLE PRINCE by Antoine De Saint-Expery, a story of a prince who lived on an asteroid B612 where he learned the purpose of life.

Arne Andersen, 168- Ready for a reversal.

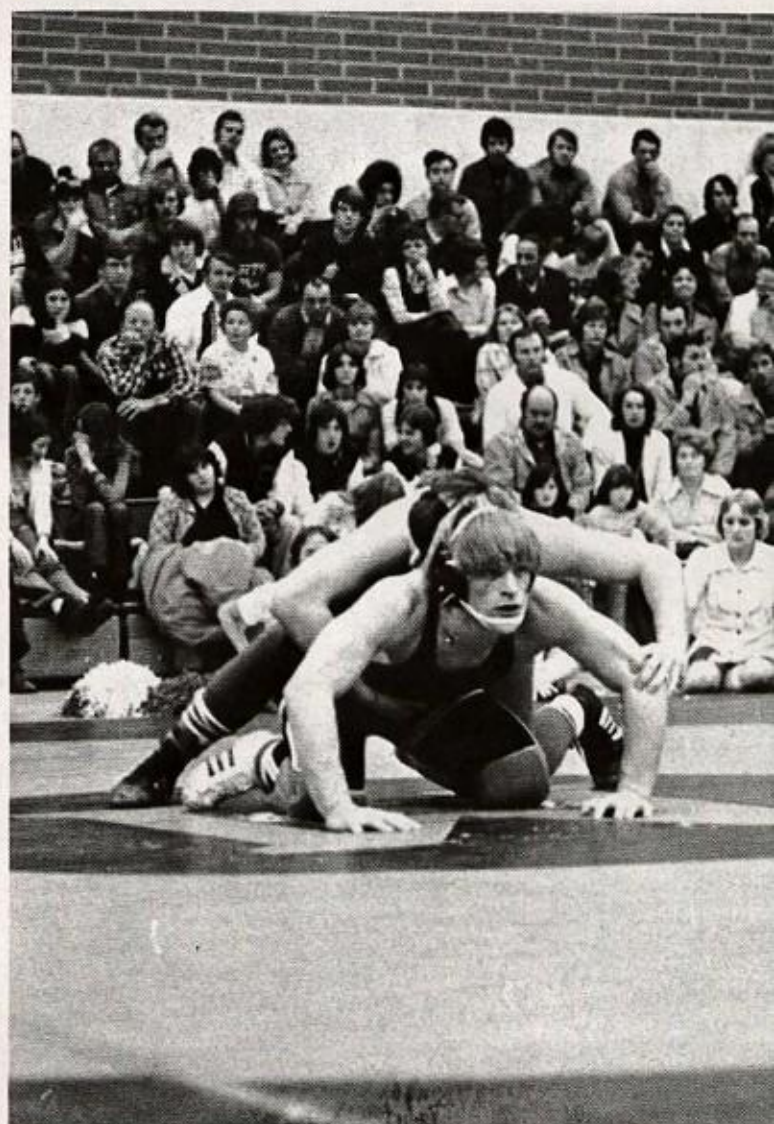

Varsity wrestlers triumphed with a great break-through this season, winning the district and regional championships and sending nine wrestlers to state.

In addition, the Junior Varsity team dominated all other J. V. teams in the league by also bringing home 1st place from the J. V. tournament.

The team worked especially hard this year under the guidance of Randy Berg, head wrestling coach and Jerry Wilson and Lee Ahrens, assistant coaches.

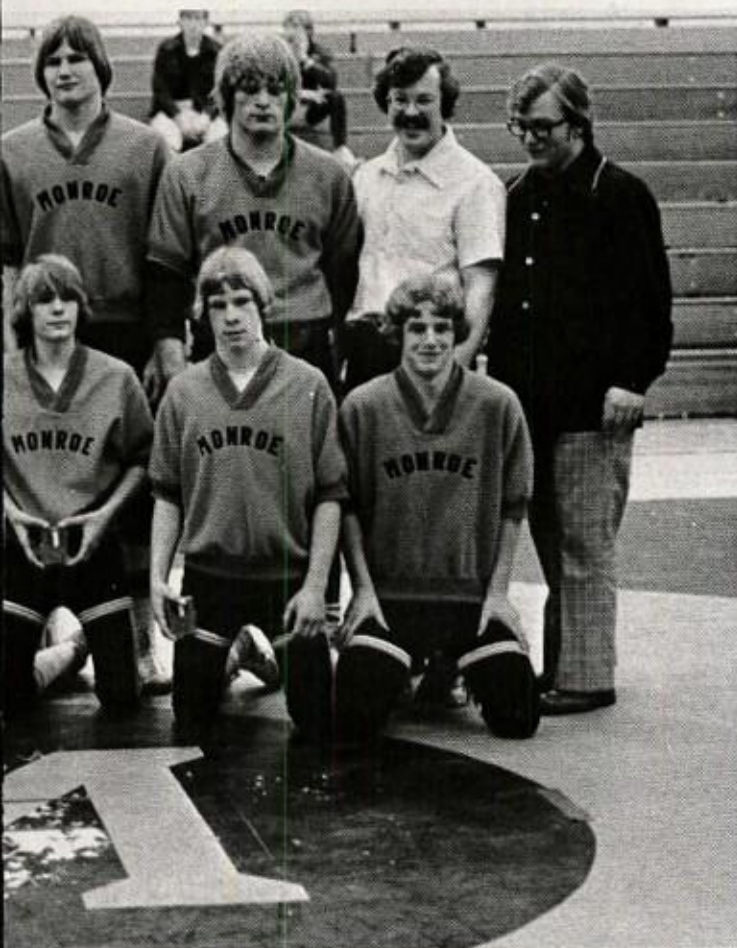

Front Row-Sitting: Tom Moon, Jim Moffet, Chris Damiani-

The 1974-75 Bearcats show real promise to challenge for the N.W.A.A. league and district titles which are presently held by Stanwood.

At the time of this publication Monroe is coming off a strong showing against Burlington, winning 58-36. With 16 games remaining in the regular season the Bearcats have given an indication that they are potentially stronger than the previous five teams to wear the orange and black.

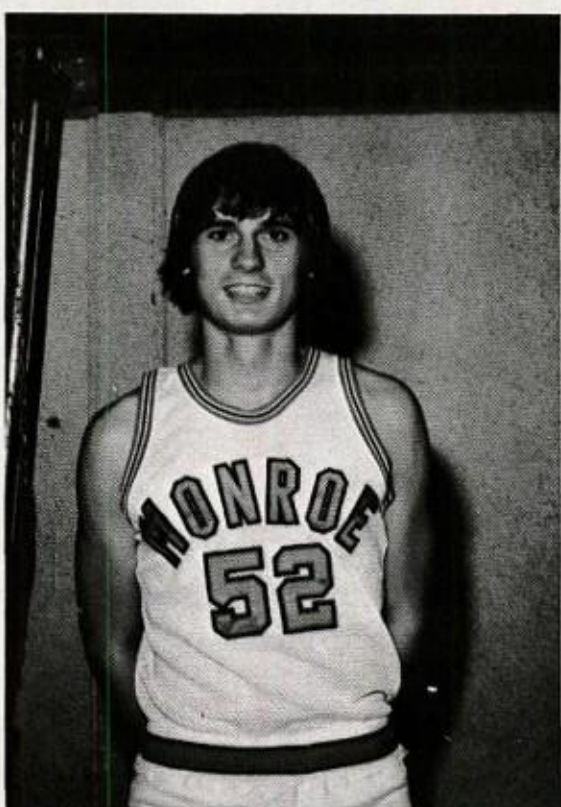

Many things happen during the course of a season and barring injury or illness the "Cats seem to be on their way to the top."

"We've got spirit, how about you?"

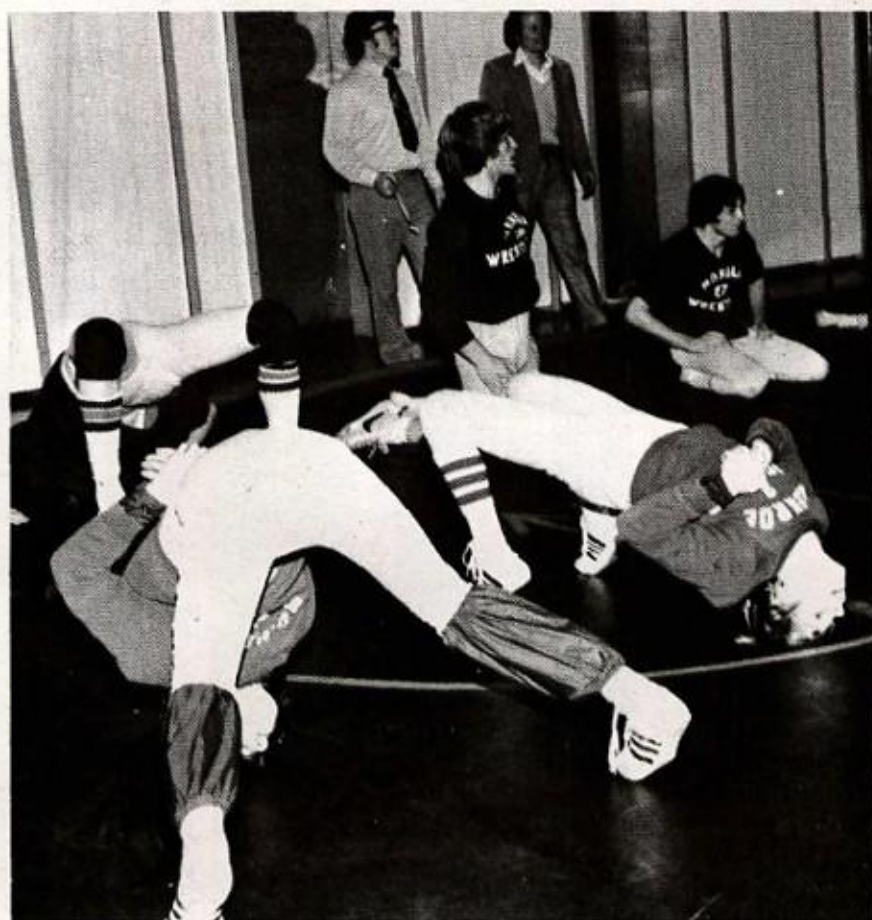

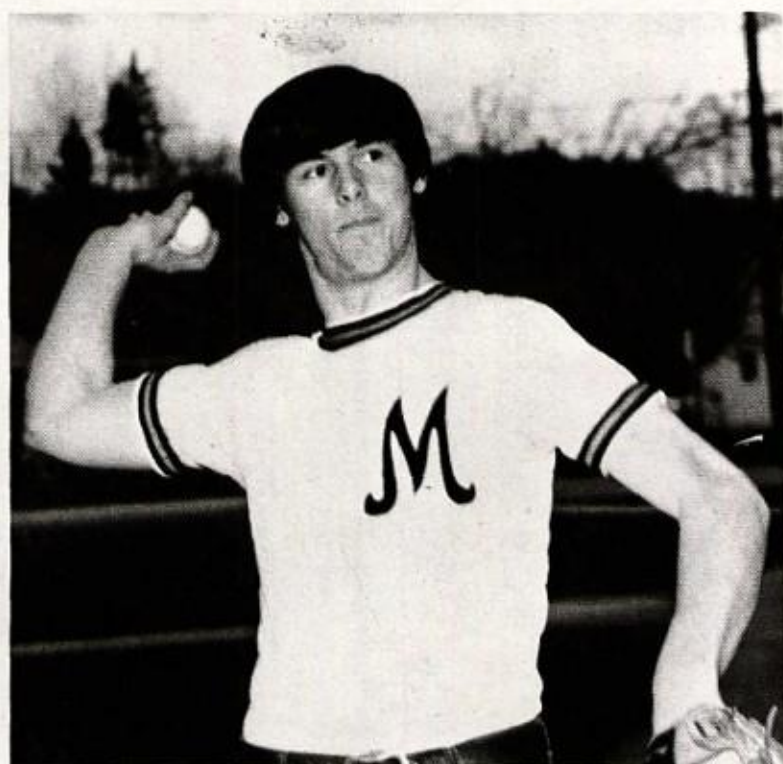

The cheerleaders at M.H.S. put in a lot of time, money and work for the school. Many times the only thing people see are the fun and glory involved in being a cheerleader. What people don't see is the hard work that is done, staying after school, learning cheers or working on money raising projects. Some of the expenses include uniforms, buying things for the team and putting on dinners for our team and cheerleaders from other schools. All these items come to roughly $200 per cheerleader!

Gloria Meckle cheerleading captain explained that the main part of cheerleading is thinking up ideas to get the students and teams enthused and involved. Noise Jams, a pie eating contest and numerous skits were presented at pep assemblies this year to try to spark student interest.

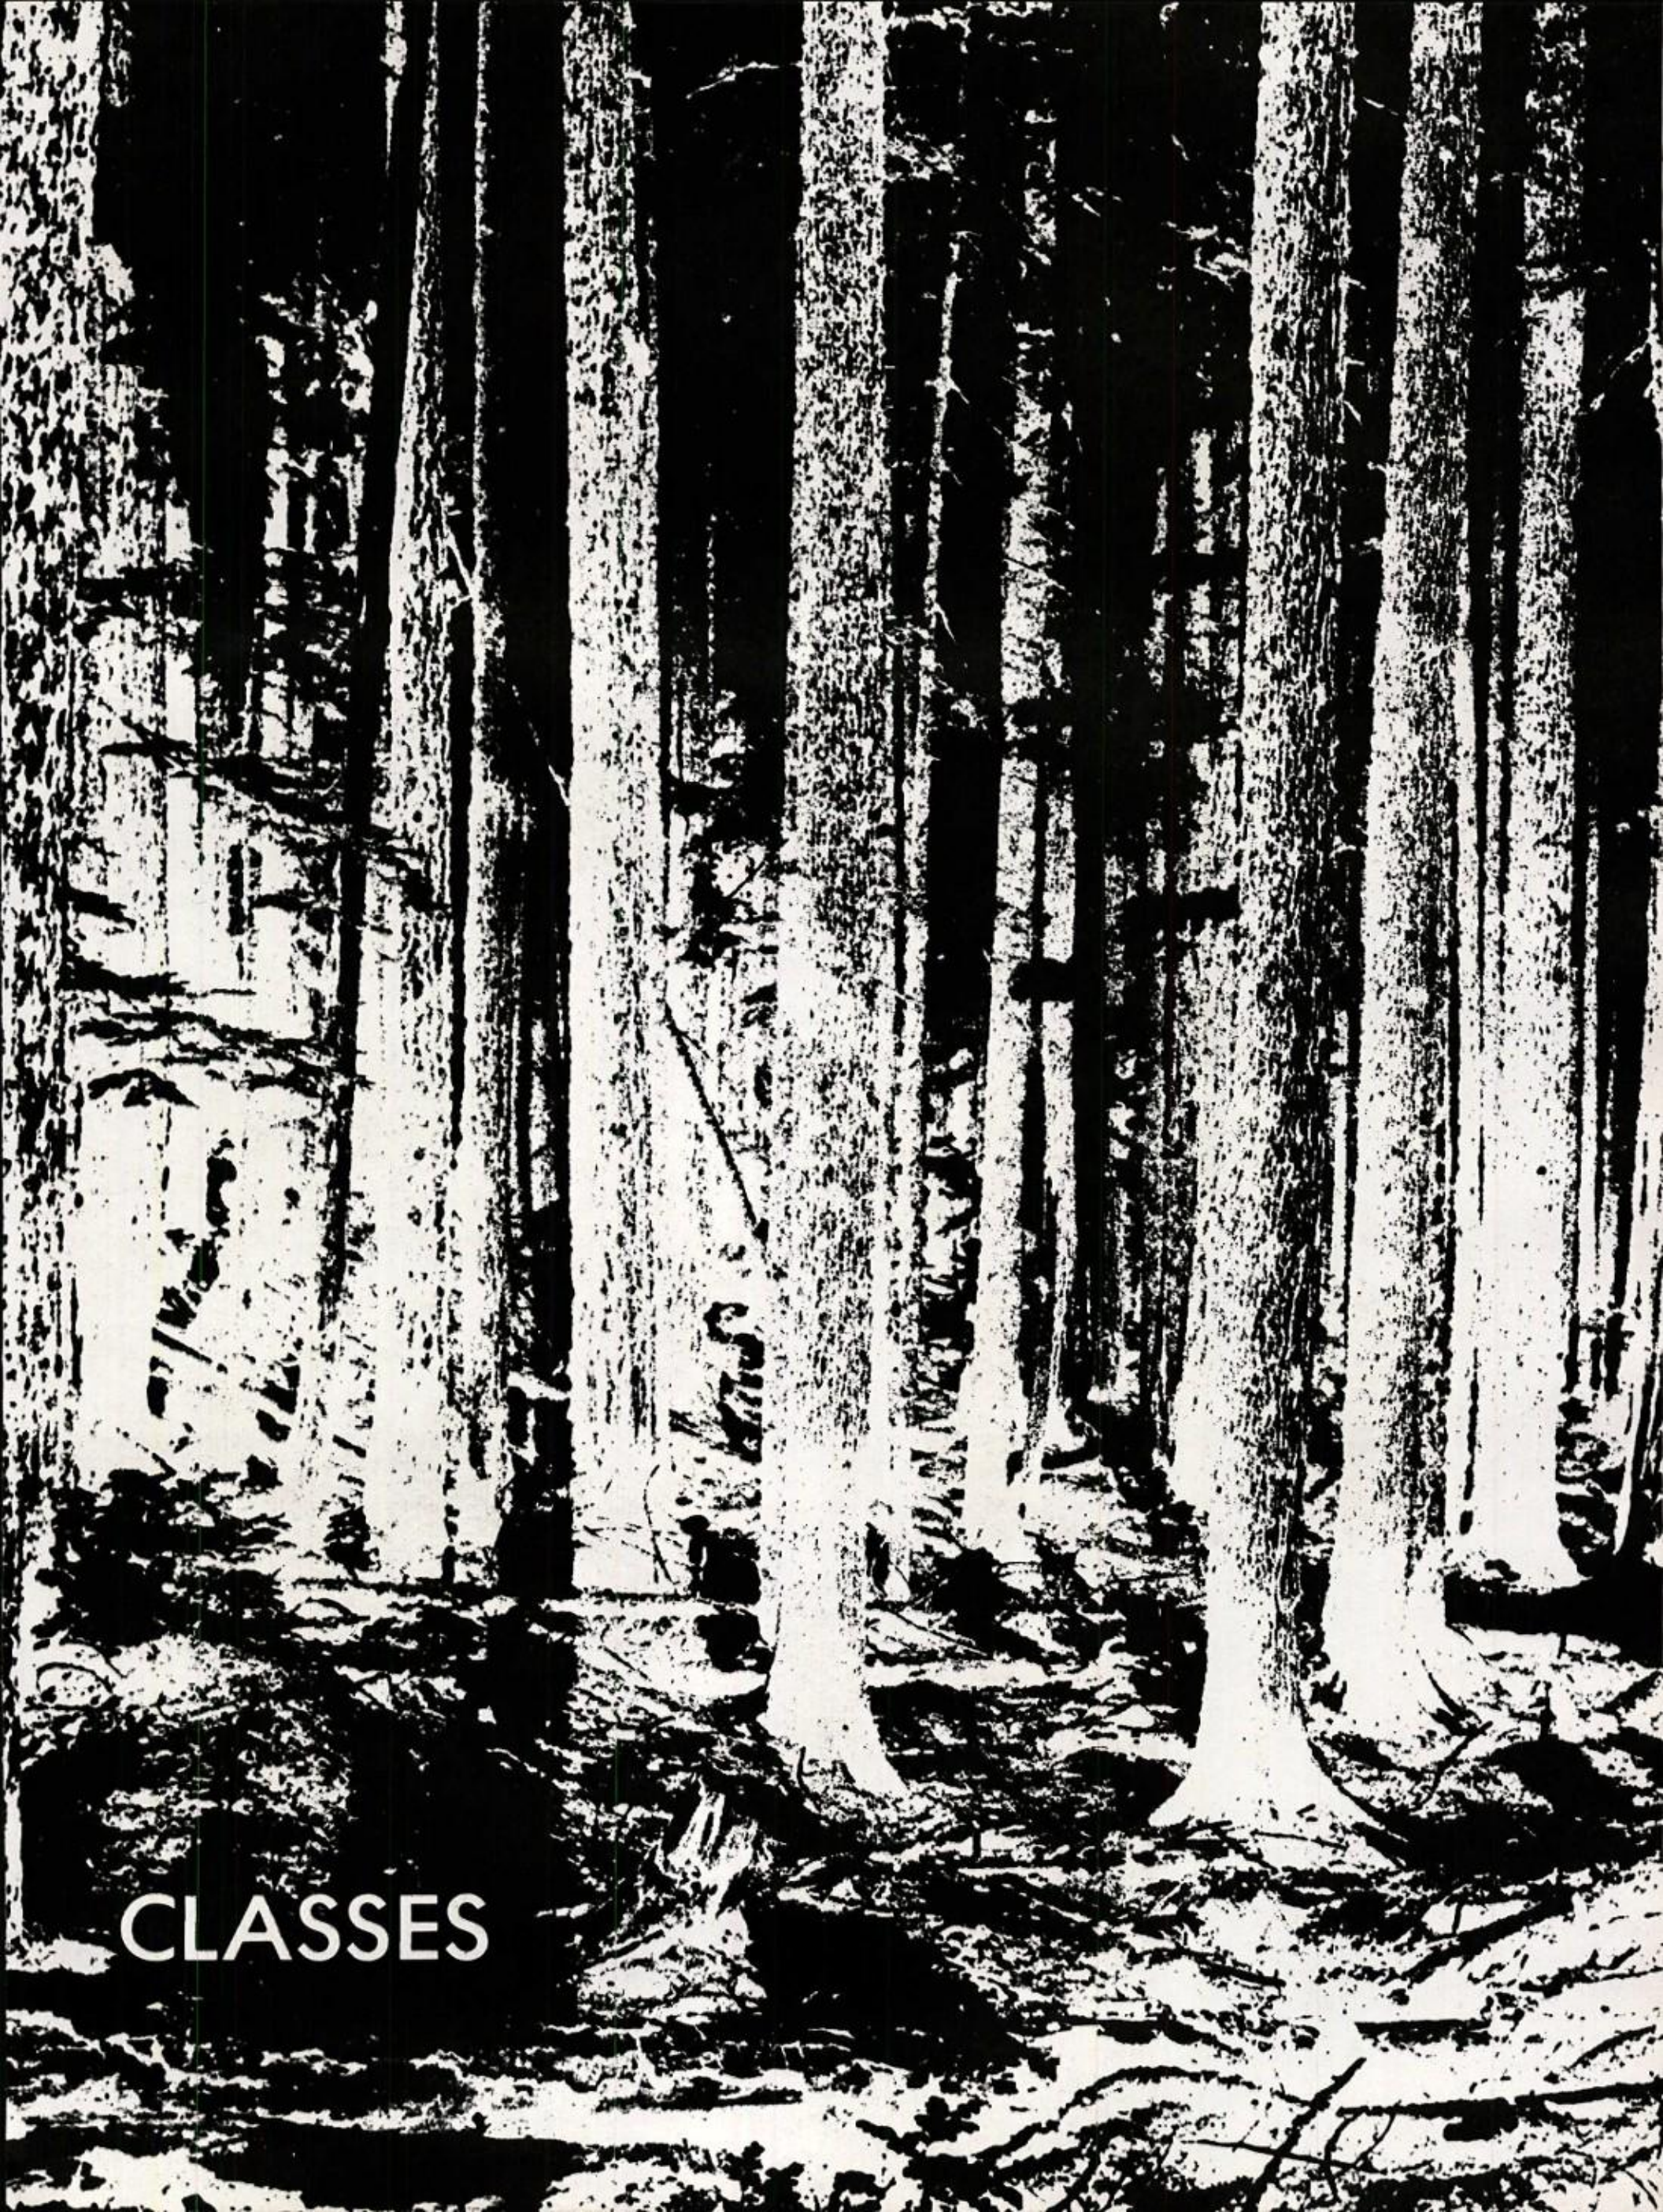

Greta Neal, cheerleader advisor sits thoughtfully writing the letter to Student Council which she and Vice Principal Bill Prenevost submitted in January. Citing lack of student support at games, they suggested that the cheerleader program be dropped. As a result M.H.S. students rallied to increase participation at games and support the cheerleaders.

Jim,
 well were Seniors,
 Its great. Well have to really celebrate in New Orleans Good luck
 your Friend
 Jim

Jim
 we can keep it every day tough

Rick,
 Goddam, we made it!
 Hey Jim still for getting a keg of Coors if you are.
 Anyway Good Luck in the big world and by all means stay smoked!

Chim Chim,
 Its really been fun knowing you over the years. Its finally our turn to get out of this school - its about time - HAVE fun this summer AND stay High.
 Good Luck in whatever you Do in the future.

Jim
 Only a few more days till freedom then comes the biggest bump out summer of our lives because AFTER this summer we have to face all those lousy responsibilities good luck TAKE it easy

Jim.
 I can't say I've enjoyed being your cousin because I haven't so, seriously I wish you luck in whatever you do in the future.
 we'll probably see you at a party or over at do's house. we've finally made it, 12 years of this BULLSHIT. See ya
 (over years)

Jim,
 We really had fun time together. We'll miss you.
 To have a luck to see ya soon.
 Stay for Russell
 class of '75
 hopes to good to good to good

Chim - Chim,

I just got to know you this year, it should of happened sooner! I hope I see you this summer and whenever.
Maybe at parties and stuff. Thanks again for letting me borrow your car to get my license.
You're really a good-looking, nice and kind person. I wish there were more people like you running around.

lets keep in touch

Love always

I HOPE YOU ALWAYS TAKE A NAME
WITH A TUGH
I HOPE
ONE TO THIS SUMMER
THOUGH HAVE ALL THAT TIMES OF US
ALL THE PERSON HIM, FOR FORGET NEVER
THE BUNCH HAD! AT THE LAKE, AND I THINK YOU EVEN MAKE IT
WE CAN REMEMBER US CAN LUCK WITH DEB
TO OKAY?
ALL OF GOOD

JAMES.

This year has been a loosified year. Maybe I'll come over an smell your chimney and you can come to my house,
and dig for treasures!
See ya later

Chim-Chim

you're a really nice guy even though you always called me crany lady!
So take care (of Deb) and don't give her to many hickers!!
Hope to see you this summer maybe at a party!! "8"

love

CHIM-CHIM

I HAVN'T seen

much of you this year
But I Hope I will see you this summer ~~$~~ Good luck in the future

Jim S.

Love,
A mba

Jim- we've had lots of fun in the past. I'll really miss it & every body here. But it is getting heat. I just think I'm afraid to go into an unknown future! I'll probably be in Maine for a long time, so we'll see alot of each other.
Keep out of trouble, & keep in touch.

Jim,

I THINK COATES CLASS
WOULD OF BEEN VERY BORING
IF YOU WEREN'T THERE TO TALK TO. STAY SWEET. SEE YA LATER.
Love,
Claud.
